Disclaimer

The prices listed herein are the list prices of the most common charges submitted by Franklin Dermatology Group. This information does not necessarily represent what an insurance company will pay or what you will owe. Additionally, the pricing information in these documents are not a guarantee of any amount you will be charged for services provided by Franklin Dermatology Group. It is impossible to predict the final charges that will result due to variables involved in actual services such as: the complexity of the visit, specific equipment, supplies, and prescriptions required, necessary biopsies or lab work recommended by your provider, and/or any unusual special care or unexpected conditions or complications.

Franklin Dermatology Group shall not be liable for any difference between charges listed in the below documents and the final bill for services that you receive.

If you have insurance, your insurance benefits will ultimately determine the amount you owe (including deductibles, co-pay, co-insurance, and out-of-pocket maximums). The charges in this document may reflect amounts owed by your insurance company for which you will not be billed. Financial hardship is evaluated on a case-by-case basis.
